PRACTICE

John McKenna KC has been in practice at the commercial bar in Queensland for over 30 years, including over 18 years as senior counsel. He has a particular interest in appellate and legally complex matters.

Mr McKenna KC is also a Nationally Accredited Mediator, with over 15 years of experience in the mediation and expert determination of commercial disputes.

Mr McKenna KC was educated at the Anglican Church Grammar School, the University of Queensland and as a Rhodes Scholar at the University of Oxford. He is a Fellow of the Australian Academy of Law, an Adjunct Professor of Law at the University of Queensland, the President of the University of Queensland Law Alumni Association, the Chairman of the Incorporated Council of Law Reporting for the State of Queensland, a member of the Supreme Court of Queensland Library Committee, a member of the statutory Legal Practice Committee and the National Secretary of the Association of Rhodes Scholars in Australia. He was awarded a Doctorate of Laws (honoris causa) by the University of Queensland in 2022.

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

- Admission to the Bar: 17 September 1984 (Supreme Court of Queensland)
- Appointed SC/KC: 20 November 2002 (Supreme Court of Queensland)

BACKGROUND

Mr McKenna KC was born and educated in Brisbane. He attended the Anglican Church Grammar School (1974-78), where he graduated as dux. He then commenced an Arts-Law degree at the University of Queensland (1978-83), where he graduated with a Bachelor of Arts (majoring in Economics) and a Bachelor of Laws (Hon 1).

In his final year of studies, he was awarded the Rhodes Scholarship for Queensland. Prior to taking up this scholarship, Mr McKenna worked in the banking and finance section of the Brisbane firm of Feez Ruthning (later Allens) and was admitted as a barrister of the Supreme Court of Queensland (17 September 1984).

With the support of both a Rhodes Scholarship and a University of Queensland Travelling Scholarship, Mr McKenna undertook a period of postgraduate study at Magdalen College at the University of Oxford (1984-89). He graduated with a Bachelor of Civil Laws (Hon 1) and undertook a number of years of research into the history and modern expression of the doctrines of estoppel.

In 1989, Mr McKenna returned to Brisbane and commenced practice at the commercial bar. After completing his pupillage, he became one of the founding members of a new set of chambers which was established at Level 16, Quay Central. The other founding members of this group were Judge David Andrews KC, Justice Roger Derrington, Russell Hanson KC, Christopher Hughes KC, John Sheahan KC, Sandy Thompson KC, and Chief Judge Patsy Wolfe. As junior counsel, Mr McKenna appeared in a number of notable trials and appeals, including Ainsworth v Criminal Justice Commission (1992) 175 CLR 564; Wik Peoples v State of Queensland (1996) 187 CLR 1; HA Bachrach Pty Ltd v State of Queensland (1998) 195 CLR 547; SGH Ltd v Commissioner of Taxation (2002) 210 CLR 51; I & L Securities Pty Ltd v HTW Valuers (Brisbane) Pty Ltd (2002) 210 CLR 109; Interchase Corporation Ltd (in liq) v Grosvenor Hill (Queensland) Pty Ltd [2000] QSC 13; [2003] 1 Qd R 26 (trial and appeal); JL Holdings Pty Ltd v State of Queensland [1998] FCA 220 (trial); and Bond University Limited v Limgold Pty Ltd [1997] QSC 227; [1998] QCA 214 (trial and appeal).

On 20 November 2002, Mr McKenna was appointed to the rank of Senior Counsel for the State of Queensland.

Since this appointment, the primary focus of his practice has been on commercial matters involving legal issues of some complexity. These have arisen from many aspects of commercial activity in Queensland, including from the mining, gas, rail, port, electricity, water, sugar, finance, building, property, education and government sectors.

Notable recent cases in which Mr McKenna has appeared, include Metal Manufacturers Pty Ltd v Morton [2023] HCA 1; Workpac Pty Ltd v Rossato (2021) 271 CLR 456; [2021] HCA 23; Wagners Cement Pty Ltd v Boral Resources (Qld) Pty Limited [2020] QCA 289; Gladstone Ports Corporation Limited v Murphy Operator Pty Ltd & Ors [2020] QCA 250; Aurizon Network Pty Ltd v Glencore Coal Queensland Pty Limited & Ors [2020] QCA 182, 211; Orb Holdings Pty Ltd v WCL (Qld) Albert St Pty Ltd [2020] QCA 198; TRG v The Board of Trustees of the Brisbane Grammar School [2020] QCA 190; and Adani Abbot Point Terminal Pty Ltd v Lake Vermont Resources Pty

Ltd & Ors [2021] QCA 187. In recent years, Mr McKenna has also been acting in the liquidations of the Octaviar, LM and Queensland Nickel groups of companies.

Since taking silk, Mr McKenna has also maintained a busy practice as a mediator of commercial disputes. He has been a Nationally Accredited Mediator since 2014.

In 2022, Mr McKenna was awarded a Doctorate of Laws (honouris causa) by the University of Queensland.

Mr McKenna's practice is based in Brisbane and focuses upon:

- appellate matters, before the Queensland Court of Appeal, the Full Federal Court and the High Court of Australia.
- mediation and expert determination of commercial disputes.
- the conduct of commercial litigation, including trials of limited duration.
- advisory work.
